

Chandlers take on Maschio Gaspardo, Strautmann and Sky

OPICO Ltd is pleased to announce the expansion of its partnership with Chandlers Farm Equipment. Chandlers has been an OPICO dealer, selling and servicing the HE-VA range of cultivation machinery, OPICO range of grassland maintenance equipment and OPICO grain dryers, for many years. This long-standing and successful relationship with Chandlers has been extended to include Maschio Gaspardo tillage and seeding equipment and Maschio flail mowers, SKY grain drills and Strautmann forage and feeding wagons.

Commenting, James Woolway, OPICO MD said, "We couldn't be more delighted that our full line up of brands will be represented by Chandlers and we are confident that all our customers will receive excellent support from Chandlers. Chandlers is one of the largest AGCO dealers in the UK and covers an area from Lincoln in the north, to the M25 in the south, and from Birmingham to The Wash in the east. With a sales team of twenty-five, a fully trained network of service engineers operating out of seven branches and support from a knowledgeable parts team, I'm sure that they will do an outstanding job."

Gavin Pell, Managing Director at Chandlers Farm Equipment added, "OPICO headquarters are in Bourne, Lincolnshire, central to our area and perfectly located to provide us with the highest level of support. OPICO has product specialists dedicated to each of its brands to provide first hand technical knowledge. This has been key to our success with the HE-VA and OPICO machines and I'm sure the same will apply going forward with Maschio, Sky and Strautmann - – we look forward to being of service to our local customers with these excellent product ranges"
